Date	Content	Image
Dec 4 to Dec 10	Nothing to see here! ● When dogs avert their gaze, it's likely they're uncomfortable and need the situation changed quickly. Take action to avoid your furry friend becoming aggressive. Remember, dogs can bite when they're tired, frightened, annoyed, unwell or in pain. Read more P https://www.awlqld.com.au/education/petsense-program/ #Whatsyourdogsaying? #dogsafety	shutterstick
Dec 11 to Dec 17	 What's your dog trying to say? If they have low body posture, are yawning, licking their lips, or avoiding eye contact, they're most likely worried, uncomfortable, or anxious. By understanding our furry friends' body language, we can create a safer and happier environment for everyone. Learn more about your dog's body language > https://www.awlqld.com.au/education/petsense-program/ #Whatsyourdogsaying? #dogsafety 	shutterstrick:

Dec 18 to Dec 22	 Christmas costumes might not be fun for the whole family! So Solution Yawning, face licking and low body posture are all signs that your dog is uncomfortable. Take action to avoid your furry friend becoming aggressive. Remember, dogs can bite when they're frightened, annoyed, tired, unwell or in pain. Read more frightened. Read more frightened. Whatsyourdogsaying? #dogsafety 	Image: Antersect Matersect
		Or
Jan 8 to Jan 14	Nose lick = stressed! Yawning, lick licking, low body posture, no eye contact – these are all signs that a dog is worried and uncomfortable. Stay away. Teach kids that dogs can bite when they're tired, frightened, annoyed, unwell or in pain.	whetherstack

	Read more https://www.awlqld.com.au/wp- content/uploads/2020/09/PetSense-Dogs-parent-teacher-notes.pdf #Whatsyourdogsaying? #dogsafety
Jan 15 to Jan 21	 Happy or hot? (2) A wagging tail and panting mouth doesn't always mean a dog is relaxed and happy. Never approach a dog you don't know and remember any dog has the potential to bite. Learn more about how to safely approach, pat and play with a dog here https://www.awlqld.com.au/wp-content/uploads/2020/09/PetSense-Dogs-parent-teacher-notes.pdf 	shutterstr.ck
Jan 22 to Jan 28	#Whatsyourdogsaying? #dogsafety Dogs need their safe haven too! Providing a quiet space for dogs to retreat to when things get overwhelming is important. Remember, dogs can bite when they're tired, frightened, annoyed, unwell or in pain. Read more https://www.awlqld.com.au/education/petsense-program/ #Whatsyourdogsaying? #dogsafety	uterstock and a statement of the stateme

Jan 29 to Feb 4	There is nothing more rewarding than spending quality time with our furry friends but remember accidents can still happen. Games like fetch or hide and seek with a treat or toy are safer for everyone. Play safe and stay safe. Read more https://www.awlqld.com.au/wp-content/uploads/2020/09/PetSense-Dogs-parent-teacher-notes.pdf #Whatsyourdogsaying? #dogsafety	shutterstruck
Alt option	Lead by example! Pulling and lunging while on a leash can be a sign a dog is feeling uncomfortable or scared in a social situation. Never approach a dog you don't know and remember any dog has the potential to bite. Learn more about how to safely approach, pat and play with a dog https://www.awlqld.com.au/wp-content/uploads/2020/09/PetSense-Dogs- parent-teacher-notes.pdf #Whatsyourdogsaying? #dogsafety	shutterstruck